

Revive Us Again

Mixed Brass Quartet and Piano
Score (Transposed)

John J. Husband
Arranged by Tim Fisher
piano accompaniment by Duane Ream

The musical score is arranged in five systems. The first four systems are for the brass quartet, labeled PART I, PART II, PART III, and PART IV. Each part begins with a rest in the first measure, followed by a melodic line starting in the second measure. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The first measure of each part is marked with a fermata. The dynamic marking f (forte) is placed below the first note of each part. The tempo/mood marking "Brightly" is placed above the first measure of each part. The second measure of each part is marked with a fermata. The dynamic marking f is placed below the first note of each part. The tempo/mood marking "poco ritard." (poco ritardando) is placed above the third measure of each part. The fifth system is for the piano, labeled "PIANO". It begins with a rest in the first measure, followed by a chordal accompaniment starting in the second measure. The key signature is two flats, and the time signature is 3/4. The first measure of the piano part is marked with a fermata. The dynamic marking f is placed below the first note of the piano part. The tempo/mood marking "Brightly" is placed above the first measure of the piano part. The second measure of the piano part is marked with a fermata. The dynamic marking f is placed below the first note of the piano part. The tempo/mood marking "poco ritard." is placed above the third measure of the piano part. The piano part consists of a series of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The bass line is marked with "8vb" (octave below) and a fermata. The dynamic marking f is placed below the first note of the bass line. The tempo/mood marking "poco ritard." is placed above the third measure of the bass line.
