Rad Power Bikes Named One of America's Fastest-Growing Companies

The consumer direct ebike brand ranks number 63 on the 2019 Inc. 5000 list for its three-year revenue growth of 4,442 percent

SEATTLE, August 14, 2019 – Inc. magazine today revealed that Rad Power Bikes is number 63 on its annual Inc. 5000 list, the prestigious ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies. Many well-known names, including Microsoft, Dell, Domino's Pizza, Pandora, and Timberland, gained their first national exposure as honorees on the list.

"This is an exciting milestone and a testament to our talented team and passionate community of owners," said Mike Radenbaugh, Founder and CEO of Rad Power Bikes. "We started out wanting to build ebikes, and are now building a company that's helping to change the way people and businesses move."

The global ebike brand grew its revenue more than 4,400 percent over the last three years through its thriving consumer-direct business model, rapid international expansion into Canada and Europe, and launch of a dedicated commercial division. The Seattle-based company quickly became North America's largest ebike brand by taking a value-innovation approach to designing powerful, durable, and affordable ebikes, backed by unprecedented customer support.

The 2019 Inc. 5000 is ranked according to percentage revenue growth between 2015 and 2018. To qualify, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2015 and independent as of December 31, 2018.

Ranked within the top 100 companies, Rad Power Bikes will be featured in the September issue of Inc., available on newsstands on August 20. For more, visit www.radpowerbikes.com and www.inc.com.
