

Rad Power Bikes Founders' Named EY Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2019 Award Finalists
Mike Radenbaugh and Ty Collins join the ranks of unstoppable entrepreneurs in the Pacific Northwest Region

SEATTLE, April 18, 2019 – Rad Power Bikes, a global direct-to-consumer electric bike brand, is proud to announce that co-founders Mike Radenbaugh and Ty Collins have been named finalists for the EY Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2019 Award in the Pacific Northwest region.

Widely considered one of the most prestigious business awards programs in the U.S., the program recognizes entrepreneurs and leaders of high-growth companies who are excelling in areas such as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities, while also transforming our world.

Now in its 33rd year, the program has expanded to recognize business leaders in more than 145 cities and more than 60 countries throughout the world.

“Ty and I are truly honored to be recognized alongside some of the leading entrepreneurs and business luminaries in the Pacific Northwest,” said Radenbaugh, Co-Founder and CEO of Rad Power Bikes. “We’re dedicated to making ebikes more accessible to help increase their adoption as a sustainable mode of transportation, and we’re grateful to EY, our customers, and the larger business community for supporting our mission.”

Radenbaugh and Collins were selected as finalists by a panel of independent judges. Award winners will be announced at a special black tie gala event on Friday, June 14 at the King Street Ballroom & Perch in Seattle, Washington.

Regional award winners are eligible for consideration for the Entrepreneur Of The Year National competition. Award winners in several national categories, as well as the Entrepreneur Of The Year National Overall Award winner, will be announced at the Entrepreneur Of The Year National Awards gala in Palm Springs, California, on November 16, 2019. The awards are the culminating event of the Strategic Growth Forum®, the nation’s most prestigious gathering of high-growth, market-leading companies.
