

BORN TO SKO!

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

Nothing says celebration like sparkling wine. And nothing says hell yes like Boulder, Colorado. Sko Bubbs was born to bring those two things together.

We created this brand for the Buffs, the locals, the alums, the fans—for anyone who's ever shouted "Sko!" with a drink in hand and a grin on their face. In a world that feels a little too serious sometimes, Sko Bubbs is here to pop the cork on something lighter. Real grapes, real winemaking, real sparkle.

Made by CU grads who care about what we drink and who we drink it with. Let the good times roll.

MEET THE MAKER

ALEX KANZLER

After graduating from CU in 2008, Alex Kanzler had two liberal arts degrees, a mailbox full of corporate job offers, and zero interest in wearing a suit. So, he followed the pull back to what felt real—winemaking.

His journey has taken him through cellars in California, Oregon, and New Zealand. Nearly 20 vintages later, he's earned his place as one of California's top next-gen winemakers. His family's winery, Kanzler Vineyards, is a go-to name for Pinot lovers, and his wines (Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Cabernet Franc) regularly pull 90+ point scores and high praise from the biggest critics in the country.

Alex met his wife, Breauna, at CU, and together with two of their best friends, they dreamed up Sko Bubbs, because Boulder, the Buffs, and popping bottles deserve something more meaningful than just another drink.
