About moJJa

Purple Peace Socks for Epilepsy Research

moJJa Socks is a proud Canadian organization that has the goal to bring stylish, comfortable and funky socks to the Canadian marketplace.

The unique designs are created by family members of the moJJa. Put those boring socks away, and let your feet walk and moJJa socks talk.

Since the company's launch in 2015, we have actively given back to several charitable organizations including Movember, Breast Cancer research, Jordan's Annual Sock Drive and Katie's Run for Epilepsy research to name a few.

moJJa Socks
are unique and
fun to wear!
