GOD'S RAINBOW

God created man and woman, but they disobeyed Him. Soon the earth was filled with evil. God had to destroy every living thing by a flood and start over with Noah. God told Noah to build an ark to save his family and two of every kind of animal. They entered the ark, and God shut the door. Rain fell from heaven, and waters under the earth poured forth. The awful storm raged forty days and forty nights! The waters rose, up, up, up. The ark floated in perfect safety, but everything outside was drowned! That seems awful, but it shows how bad sin is to our holy God.

After seven months, the ark went bump, bump, bump, and settled on Mt. Ararat. At last, Noah opened the ark window and sent out a big, black raven and a soft, gentle dove. The raven stayed out, but the dove came back. Noah sent her out again, but she came back. After another week he sent that dear little dove out a third time. She never returned. Noah was sure the waters were dried up. At last, God told Noah to open the door. "Go out," God said, "And

Kidz Notez

MR. NUTZ SEZ:

"I will happily deliver your email notez to "Aunt Carolyn" and The CBC Clubhouse kidz, and I promise not to nibble the edges!"

NOTEZ FROM KIDZ NEWZ READERZ:

"It's a wonderful ministry! I enjoyed autobiography section! Thank you!♥"

Welcome to Robin Redbreast

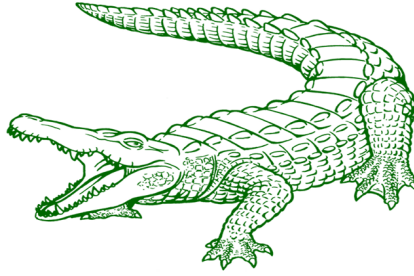

"Aunt Carolyn" lives in Florida. She saw the first robin of this season returning from wintering in the south on February 14, Valentine's Day! When do the robins return for spring where you live? Write or E-mail Kidz News and let us know. "Mr. Nutz" will happily share it with your friends next issue!

KIDZ KRITTER KORNER

“Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God” (Job 37:14).

ALBY ALLIGATOR

How do you like this guy's lovely grin? Would you like to brush his teeth? God made the alligator with a broad snout and huge teeth. His lower teeth fit into sockets in the upper jaw, like a lock. If anything gets caught in those strong jaws, it cannot escape, so don't stick your head in his mouth to examine his dentures. Don't try to brush an alligator's teeth either, but don't forget to brush yours every day!

Stay away from the 'gator's front end. Stay away from the other end, too! One swish of his monstrous tail and down to the bottom of the lake you would go! He likes frogs, fish, and turtles, but with one whomp of his tail he can knock a dog or child off the bank, into the water, and instantly clench it in his huge jaws.

God gave Mr. 'Gator a perfect camouflage. In daylight, his color blends with the dark water, and he can lay so still that he looks like an old log floating. At night, you can't see him at all except for his glowing eyes that look like two red-hot coals in the darkness.

When baby alligators hatch, every single one heads directly for the water. Who taught them to do that? Their mother doesn't lead them, and they didn't learn it in school. No, our Heavenly Father gave them the instinct to get to the lake for survival and home.

God wonderfully takes care of every detail for His creation. If He cares for every bird and animal, He surely must love and care for every boy and girl! He made us, and although we have sinned against Him, He still loves us. He gave His only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to die on the cross to pay for our sin. We ought to receive Christ as Saviour. Little "gators" do just what God made them to do. How careful we ought to be to love Him and obey His Word!

replenish the earth!"

After being cooped up in the ark over a year, the animals were happy to get out! They scattered in every direction to find food and a new home.

Noah's family was glad to be out in the fresh air and sunshine, too! They built an altar, offered a sacrifice, and thanked God for sparing them from the flood.

Their offering pleased God. He promised that He would never again destroy the earth by a flood and placed a lovely rainbow in the sky as a sign of His promise. That promise is still good today. Often after a rain, you can see God's rainbow reminding you that He loves you and is true to His Word!

Just as God spared those in the ark, He will save you from sin and eternal death if you will enter His ark of safety, the Lord Jesus Christ. "Christ died for our sins" (1 Cor. 15:3). Trust Him as your Savior now!

Kidz Vita-Verse

John 3:36

“He that believeth on the son
(the Lord Jesus Christ) hath everlasting life.”

Can you memorize this verse and say it for your mom or dad?
(Take your vitamins and say your Vita-Verse every day!)

Kidz Questions . . .

WHO IS GOD?

God is the self-existing, eternal, invisible, true God, who created the heavens and earth, people, and all things.

HOW DO I KNOW THAT IS TRUE?

Because God says it in His Word. He gave us the Bible so we could know about Him, His love, and His salvation. “Thy word is truth.” (John 17:17).
