Laid out in front of your caravan, motorhome or tent, the best camping mats place a physical barrier between your possessions and the dirty ground.

Our range have been designed specifically to keep dirt, mud and sand from being walked into your caravan, RV or tent. They can also be used to complete the look of your annex, awning or private room. Lightweight and easy to setup as well as pack away, Camec's camping floor mats can be stowed in a spare cupboard or even in the boot of your car (as they're great for all sorts of outdoor events, such as picnics).
