

MOTHER'S DAY TOP PICKS

Plus free tags

Hi there! Whether I'm selling or just gifting something to a special mama in my life, I have a few favorite go-to ideas:

Idea 1: a Mini Cake! I love to make either a Bundt cake or even cake slices. I package them in my cute boxes shown here with a ribbon and tag (tag designs are on page 2). You can also grab my Bundt cake recipe here.

Sage Green Bakery Box

Idea 2: Semi Baked Good Box! These boxes are for when I don't have a lot of time to bake. I fill the box with other items (chap stick, tiny lotion, candle, etc.) and then add a tiny baked good (small brownie bite, mini macarons, etc.). Click here for my brownie recipe.

Daisy Bakery Box

Idea 3: No Baked Goods at All! Sometimes, I just fill the box with something fun...a homemade simmer pot mix or items from the dollar store. Add a cute tag and sometimes even a $5 gift card to make it even more special. These can be gifted to loved ones or sold at the farmer's market or in your bakery cart. People love to be able to grab a cute, convenient gift.

A decorative background featuring a repeating floral pattern of small pink and blue flowers with green leaves and yellow berries, set against a light cream color. The pattern is arranged in a way that creates a series of overlapping, house-shaped outlines.
