These guidelines are an initial recommendation for an average active adult dog. Adjust amounts as needed depending upon your dog's age, activity and environment.

To ensure your pet's overall health, it's important to schedule regular veterinarian visits.

KEEP FRESH WATER
AVAILABLE AT ALL TIMES.

TRANSITIONING TO NEXT LEVEL: To avoid dietary upset, allow 6-8 days to ease the transition from your dog's current food to Next Level dog food. Gradually increase the amount of Next Level while decreasing the amount of your previous food until you're exclusively feeding Next Level.
