

MARK ALEXANDER

The spirit of the Mark Alexander studio tends towards a modern aesthetic. Alongside, is a clear emphasis on provenance, creating textiles that have been crafted, not just manufactured, that possess an intrinsic beauty fitting perfectly within the interior, whether classic or modern, that appears to have evolved artfully over time.

Another part of our aesthetic is to create textiles that convey a sense of the well-travelled, the collected. We take design cues from many cultural and historical references, respecting the inspirational source, perhaps through the inherent beauty of a natural material or a timeless technique, combining that sense of something authentic with designs that are entirely original.

This collection draws together these aspects of Mark Alexander in an eclectic range of prints, embroideries, jacquards and textures.

Ageless textiles for curated interiors.
