EST. 2011

Dear Store Manager,

I am a dedicated shopper at your grocery store and I am writing to encourage you to carry Capital City's _____ product(s) in your store.

Capital City, LLC is the only DC/Maryland based company that offers this authentic Washington, DC wing sauce – mambo sauce. Mambo sauce is a DC area staple and absolutely delicious on a variety of foods, especially chicken wings.

Right now, I am ordering Capital City's products online or at another store, which are lost dollars for your store.

For information about Capital City's products, please visit their website at www.shopcapitalcity.com or send an email directly to info@shopcapitalcity.com.

Please carry this product. Thank you in advance for acting on my request.

I would love to be notified once the products are brought in. My name is _____ and my phone number is _____.

Sincerely, _____

Date: _____
