DERMASSENTIAL
NATURAL SKINCARE PRODUCT

Anti-Aging and Pigmentation
Range

120ml

AHA CLEANSER

Enzymatic foaming gel cleanser.

Rids skin of dead skin cells, smooths texture, prevents blemishes, fades dark spots, reduces fine lines and wrinkles.

Use in the evenings every second to third night to increase cell turnover.

Contains: Salicylic acid, Glycolic acid and Malic acid.

50ml

ENZYMATIC EXFOLIATION

A night product only

Enzymatic exfoliation is an evening option for exfoliating your skin using natural enzymes to break into cellular adhesions to release dead skin cells.

Pineapple and Papaya are the enzymes that soften the skin. The enzymes in these fruits fight free-radical damage and are known to reduce age spots and fine lines, leaving the skin supple.

30ml

VITAMIN C SERUM

L-Ascorbic acid is the purest form of vitamin C and provides multiple benefits to the skin. It is a potent antioxidant when applied topically as it protects the skin from oxidative damage and other environmental aggressors that lead to skin ageing and skin discoloration.

It promotes collagen, suppresses overproduction of melanin.

Apply day and night under moisturiser. The easy dispenser cools and soothes the skin reducing inflammation.

100ml

SPF 20

Moisturizing broad spectrum sun protection factor offering UVA and UVB protection for the face and body. It protects the skin against sunburn and premature ageing. The feather-light, non-greasy formula is perfect for everyday use.

Apply every day 30 minutes before exposing to Ultraviolet. Essential to also apply on overcast days.

150ml

GEL FACE WASH

A light foaming gel cleanser for all skin types. Removes excess oil, surface impurities and make-up without disrupting the delicate balance of the skin and includes anti-inflammatory properties.

150ml

MILK EMULSION

This rich creamy emulsion formulation is selected for balancing your skin by cleansing dirt, grime and make-up trapped in your pores. This product is ideal for dry, dehydrated, sensitive and mature skin.

Use evenings alternating with enzymatic cleanser.
