PATTERSON FLYNN

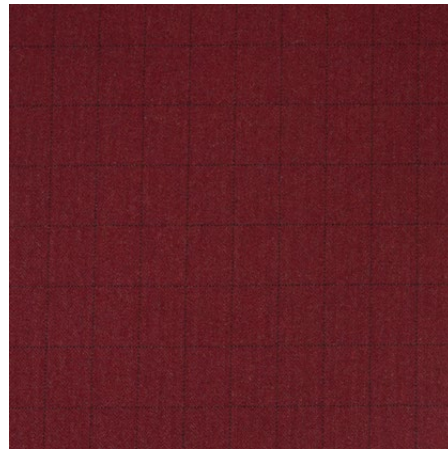

Patterson Flynn, the source for the finest custom carpets and rugs since 1943, is also highly regarded for its sumptuous fabrics, trims, and wallcoverings. Featuring extraordinary textures and a refined tonal palette, the Patterson Flynn collection encompasses sophisticated patterns and foundational wovens that are elegant but never too dressy. Characterized by unmatched craftsmanship and exquisite artistry, these gorgeous designs put an emphasis on natural fibers and luxe finishes that beg to be touched.

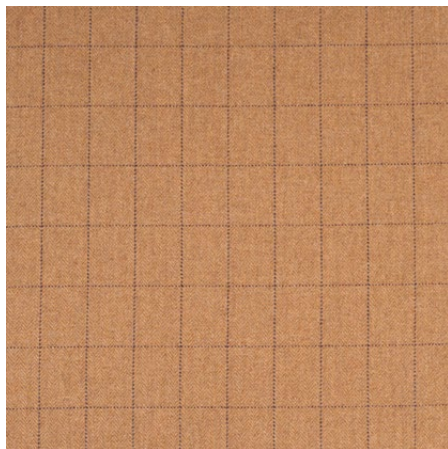

Made of 100% merino lambswool and woven in Scotland, Thompson Merino Windowpane combines a small-scale herringbone and a subtle windowpane design. Luxe mélange yarns give this classic menswear-inspired fabric an extraordinarily rich heathered look, plus a remarkably soft and luxurious hand. Versatile and multipurpose, it's suitable for everything from pillows and furniture to window treatments and wall upholstery.

Inspired by an antique blanket from India, Nael Linen Cotton Tape is made of stiff, irregular yarns and woven on a jacquard loom. With its textural, embroidered look and subtle strié effect, this trim adds pattern, dimension, and a rustic, elegant touch to upholstered pieces, window treatments, and pillows.

Inspired by West African tribal motifs, Helena Linen Cotton Tape is an artisanal trim that is made of hand-dyed yarns and woven on a traditional loom. An intricate dobby pattern embroidered in coarse cotton on a fine linen ground with a subtle strié and a pop of color along the selvage, this tape adds texture and interest to curtain panels, roman shades, or pillows.
