MCBRIDE SISTERS WINE COMPANY

McBride Sisters Wine Company was founded by sisters, Robin McBride and Andréa McBride John who since the inception of their careers in 2005, believe wine companies should be accessible, sustainable, socially conscious and culturally aware.

We produce wine across two hemispheres, from premier coastal winemaking regions which are at the root of our story - where Andréa and Robin each grew up - in Aotearoa (pronounced “ah-oh teh-ah ROH-ah”) New Zealand and the Central Coast of California, in the United States. We offer a unique portfolio of leading brands; McBride Sisters Collection, Black Girl Magic Wines, and SHE CAN Wines and spritzers.

McBride Sisters Wine Company produces, imports and markets its own wines. It specializes in the Fortune 500 grocery stores and mass retailers, as well as wine and spirits chains, hotels, restaurants, independent wine shops, sports arenas and airlines across almost all 50 states of the U.S, Caribbean and Canada.

McBride Sisters Wine Company and all of its brands are on track to achieve scope three carbon certification in 2023, and are globally headquartered in Oakland, California.

We are Wine for the New World.

CarbonHero certifies McBride Sisters Wine Company meets its standards for carbon neutrality.
