Who we are

We believe that in order to achieve a healthy and balanced life, you need a healthy and balanced sex life as well. And the best way to achieve that is through knowledge, communication with your partner and, most importantly, self-discovery.

Desirables is a design firm based in Montréal. We specialize in creating and bringing to market a new kind of intimacy's accessories. We create products made for pleasure and self-love that are warm, functional, sustainable and aesthetic.

Our main goal is to offer a selection of products that fits perfectly into a well-balanced lifestyle. We believe that any intimacy product must be in line with the mind, the heart and the body of its users.

All our products are proudly made with the best materials available, by small businesses and craftsman from our surroundings.

Our founder

Having grown up in an entrepreneurial environment, Isabelle always knew she would create her own business one day.

It is in the context of her final project in Industrial Design Bachelor's program that Isabelle chose a daring and unusual route: designing intimacy toys for couples. Her vision of what erotic toys should be, combine the principles of design and sexology led her to create a range of porcelain objects designed for the exploration and development of the couple's intimacy.

A firm believer in the power of empathic design to change the world, Isabelle hopes to create healthy products that will help users to fulfill their desires.

The Philosophy Behind Our Products

The development of each of our products is based on three company's core values: intimacy, education and communication. We want to create tools that allow our customers to enjoy and develop their erotic life in a friendly and authentic manner.

Shocked to learn that some companies use harmful additives in their products, we made a commitment to provide healthy and easily washable products. The choice of porcelain as the main material of our products allows us to ensure an impeccable hygienic quality.

Handmade in Montréal

We believe that a company's ethical qualities are consistent in all the choices they make. It is in this state of mind that Désirables is committed from the first day to outsource its materials in Québec. In addition to creating jobs, this strategy allows us to ensure the highest quality. We are proud to do business with craftsmen and companies from here.

Toxic-Free Sex Toys

Do you remember the time when the talk was all about BPA in plastic water bottles and in toddlers' toys? The next additives in the eye of health agencies are called phthalates.

This "plasticizer" is commonly used to make some plastics softer and more flexible. Phthalates are known in the medical world as "endocrine disruptors". Specifically, some studies show that phthalates accumulate on the genitals and, for pregnant women, affect the development of sexual organs in the fetus, increasing the chances of premature birth. They are considered carcinogenic. What is even more disturbing is that these products, when used in the manufacture of sex toys are in direct contact with mucous membranes and genitals, which is a direct access to bloodstream.

Users of erotic toys containing phthalates will not necessarily react when they are in contact with this material. However, the danger comes from repeated use and long-term exposure.

What is most shocking about this story is that the majority of consumers, and even most salespeople, are not aware of this problematic. That's why we are committed to produce intimate accessories plastic free and therefore phthalate-free.

Porcelain Massage Stones

Featured in: goop

Our massage stones were specially designed to transform any beginner into a massage expert. Their unique shape allows to relax the muscles without exerting too much pressure with your hands. Every package includes three different sizes of stones to target different muscles in order to create a complete massage experience.

The perfect gift to recreate the Spa experience in the intimacy of the home.

Amazing!

I have to say that I am very impressed with the Adori stones massages. The quality of the product made in Montréal and the packaging and pocket are very nice. My boyfriend was not quite talented in massages but with those stones, it is magical, he instantly became Grrreat!(...) We definitely recommend those products!

Dalia

Porcelain Dildo

Made with the renown Porcelain de Limoges, the Dalia is a tool that we specifically design to give women an opportunity to explore and discover their bodies.

Created to combine the best of intimacy moments, combination of pleasure and sexual health. Our explorer can be used as desired, the slender tip is designed to reach and stimulate the G-Spot when the roundest tip helps you to hold on to something during your Kegels exercises.

With its sensual curves and its high-end aesthetic, the Dalia is the perfect excuse to take care of yourself and enjoy your femininity.

Perfect for the “a gift for myself” and for the accomplished women.

Great Product, Great Customer Service

The dildo is very well made, my wife loved it. The porcelain feels really nice.

OMEHA

Massage Oil

With its subtle and captivating citrus aromas, OMEHA will create a suave and delightful olfactory experience. Made from pure sunflower oil, its texture is both silky and light. This fast-absorbing oil will leave the skin soft and fully hydrated without having the trouble to take a shower after a massage session. All made in Québec and from natural and bio-certified products.

Excellent Product!

Sensual Eyemask

Since our beginnings, we believe that the best way to enjoy your intimate moments is to focus on your five senses. With that in mind, we decided to start a range of boudoir accessories centered around sensoriality.

Combining sensuality and relaxation, this elegant mask is a must have. Created to combine comfort and ergonomics, our mask is available in three colors: black, burgundy and white.

Toki D. | Verified Buyer

The product is great quality, it was well packaged and I love the colors on it! It was nice that it came with a nice little plastic bag that I can store it in when I'm not using it.
