- Customer is solely responsible, at its own cost, risk and expense, for setting, controlling and implementing its marketing plans and efforts.
- Le Creuset may provide marketing and other similar promotional materials and information, as well as advertising or other similar support, special concessions, or special or promotional pricing as it deems appropriate. Le Creuset's provision or allowance of any marketing and other similar promotional materials and information, advertising or other similar support, special concessions, or special or promotional pricing to Customer will be made in reliance upon Customer's undertaking that it will use or allow such marketing and other similar promotional materials and information and advertising, support, concessions, or pricing only with respect to the Le Creuset approved promotional functions and activities for which the same were intended.

  - In addition, even though Customer is not contractually obligated to sell at the MMAP prices, Le Creuset may, as a result of any failure to observe MMAP, terminate Customer's participation in any Retail Support Program, refuse to sell any product to Customer, and otherwise take any other actions described in the MMAP policy.
  - Moreover, Le Creuset is not obligated to make available Retail Support Programs to Customer that it makes available to other customers. For example, but without limitation, Le Creuset may make certain Retail Support Programs available to Authorized Dealers that are not available to other customers.
  - Le Creuset may curtail, terminate, change or eliminate any Retail Support Program, in which it allows Customer to participate at any time and with or without cause, including for failure to adhere to MMAP. Le Creuset also reserves the right to take other actions with respect to MMAP violations as it deems appropriate, including the actions described in the MMAP policy.
  - Customer is not obligated to participate in any Retail Support Program.

Use of Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress; Use of Names, Logos, and Other Items; Restrictions and Distribution

- Subject to the licenses granted by Le Creuset in these Terms and Conditions and any Supplemental Terms, Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

  (a) any and all Le Creuset's intellectual property rights are the sole and exclusive property of Le Creuset or its licensors;

  (b) customer does not acquire under these Terms and Conditions and any Supplemental Terms any ownership interest in any of Le Creuset's intellectual property rights;

  (c) any goodwill derived from the use by Customer of Le Creuset's intellectual property rights inures to the benefit of Le Creuset or its licensors, as the case may be; and

  (d) if Customer acquires any intellectual property rights in or relating to any product or service purchased under these Terms and Conditions and any Supplemental Terms (including any rights in any trademarks, derivative works or patent improvements relating thereto and including any rights relating to, derived from or based on such products or services or Le Creuset's intellectual property rights), by operation of law, or otherwise, these rights are deemed and are hereby irrevocably assigned to Le Creuset or its licensors, as the case may be, without further action by either party.

- Subject to the limitations set forth in the next five succeeding sub-bullet points, Le Creuset agrees that the Customer has a limited, non-exclusive, terminable, revocable (at any time, with or without cause) license with respect to the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress to acquire Le Creuset Branded Products in Covered Sales, to resell such Le Creuset Branded Products in Authorized Re-Sales, and to distribute advertising materials supplied or authorized by Le Creuset (the "Limited License"). The scope of the Limited License expressly excludes any of the actions prohibited by the next two succeeding bullet points (and all such actions shall be outside such scope).
  - As a material inducement to Le Creuset's willingness to supply products and services under these Terms and Conditions and the Supplemental Terms and to grant the Limited License above, the Customer agrees that by placing any order for such products and services, without the separate written approval of Le Creuset by a duly authorized officer of Le Creuset at the vice president level or above, the Customer will not and will not authorize others to:

  (a) display, use or include any Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress in or on any advertisement, display, circular, document or sign by, in, through or on any medium or in any manner (including, without limitation, on or through the Internet, and "Worldwide Web Site" or other electronic or digital communication network, through radio or television broadcast, and/or in any print medium), without in each specific case, the prior written permission of Le Creuset, provided that the Customer may, subject to any instructions or terms set by Le Creuset, sell genuine Le Creuset Branded Products in Authorized Re-Sales and may display and distribute advertising materials supplied or authorized by Le Creuset;

  (b) advertise, offer for sale, sell or otherwise distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products on or through a Third Party Website without the separate written approval of Le Creuset, even if written permission is granted in accordance with paragraph (a) immediately above to allow advertising with Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress;

  (c) advertise, offer for sale, sell or otherwise distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products other than in Authorized Re-Sales (and without limiting the foregoing the Customer will not advertise, offer for sale, sell or otherwise distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products to or through a third party that the Customer knows or reasonably should know intends to export, distribute or transport such Le Creuset Branded Products to a destination outside of the Covered Country);

(d) if Le Creuset agrees in writing that Authorized Re-Sales include sales by the Customer to retailers located (and taking delivery) in the Covered Country, then Customer shall obligate such retailers to make their re-sales only end-user customers in bona fide retail sales in the Covered Country for delivery to such end-user customers to a location in the Covered Country. Without limiting the foregoing, any re-sale by such third party retailer that does not comply with the foregoing sentence is not authorized by Le Creuset;

(e) other than from Le Creuset and its affiliates, acquire Le Creuset Branded Products in shipments from outside the Covered Country (including from a third party that the Customer knows or reasonably should know made shipments acquired from outside the Covered Country) for redistribution in the Covered Country;

(f) promote, market, sell, offer to sell, or distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products that have been acquired by Customer other than pursuant to Authorized Purchases.

- The Limited License does not allow Customer to use the designation "Authorized Dealer" (or any equivalent reference) or to use any Authorized Dealer mark or logo with respect to Le Creuset, Le Creuset Branded Products, or Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress except and to the extent (a) such Customer is designated by Le Creuset as in writing as an "Authorized Dealer" and (b) permitted by the Authorized Dealer Policy or Authorized Dealer Agreement applicable to Customer.
- The Customer shall observe Le Creuset's instructions with respect to any uses included within the scope of the Limited License that Le Creuset issues to protect its brand and the goodwill with respect to the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress. Customer shall ensure that all Le Creuset Branded Products sold by Customer and all related quotations, specifications, displays, advertisements, and descriptive literature, and all other materials carrying any Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress, are marked with the appropriate trademark notices in accordance with Le Creuset's instructions.
- Customer agrees that it will only resell or offer to resell the Le Creuset Branded Products that Customer then has in inventory or that are subject of orders from Le Creuset that have been accepted by Le Creuset as available for delivery to Customer, unless Customer has received prior written authorization from Le Creuset.
- Customer agrees that it will market, advertise, promote and resell the Le Creuset Branded Products only in Authorized Re-Sales consistent with good business practice that a reasonable dealer of premium brand consumer products would employ and in a manner that reflects favorably at all times on Le Creuset Branded Products and the good name, goodwill and reputation of Le Creuset and associated with the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms and Conditions or Supplemental Terms, neither Customer nor its representatives shall:

(a) make any representations, warranties, guarantees, indemnities, similar claims or other commitments ostensibly on behalf of Le Creuset or regarding the products or services purchased under these Terms and Conditions or Supplemental terms (though Customer may provide prospective to end-user customers in bona fide retail sales in the Covered Country the limited warranty included in the packages in which the products are supplied by Le Creuset and any other marketing materials Le Creuset provides to Customer for public distribution);

(b) engage in any unfair, competitive, misleading or deceptive practices respecting Le Creuset, Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress or the Le Creuset Branded Products, including any product disparagement or "bait-and-switch" practices;

(c) separate any items sold, bundled or packaged as a single product by Le Creuset;

(d) promote, market, sell, offer to sell, or distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products other than products purchased by Customer in Authorized Purchases. Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Limited License and the term "Authorized Re-Sales" specifically do not include or cover sales of Le Creuset Branded Products that have been acquired in any manner or transactions other than Authorized Purchases;

(e) promote, market, sell, offer to sell, or distribute Le Creuset Branded Products using promotional information and material other than promotional information or material provided by Le Creuset for distribution to the public or authorized in writing by Le Creuset; or

(f) promote, market, sell, offer to sell, or distribute Le Creuset Branded Products other than Authorized Re-Sales (i) at any sites or points of sale, whether virtual (i.e. websites of the Customer that are not Third Party Sites) or physical that are designated by Customer in writing to Le Creuset and approved by Le Creuset prior to placing the order for such Le Creuset Branded Products or that are the location of delivery specified in such orders (the "Designated Sites") or (ii) in association with names, logos, or tradenames of Customer or others except for the names, logos and tradenames that are designated by Customer in writing to Le Creuset prior to placing the order for such Le Creuset Branded Products and approved by Le Creuset (which will not be unreasonably withheld) (the "Designated Names"). Customer has specified the Designated Sites and Designated Names that it will use in order to facilitate Le Creuset's ability to exercise its rights and in order for Le Creuset to protect the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress and the goodwill associated therewith.

- Customer does not have the permission or authorization to advertise, offer for sale, sell or otherwise distribute any Le Creuset Branded Products other than in accordance with the provisions in "Use of Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress; Use of Names, Logos, and Other Items; Restrictions and Distribution" (and no license, express or implied, is granted with respect thereto). Customer acknowledges that these Terms and Conditions provide that Le Creuset has the sole discretion to refuse or reject orders. Without limiting the foregoing, Le Creuset may refuse or reject any order for Le Creuset Branded Products that it suspects will be exported outside the Covered Country or any order where it believes that the Customer has otherwise violated or is violating any other provisions in these Terms and Conditions or the Supplemental Terms.

- Customer shall not and shall not authorize anyone else to:

(a) take any action that may interfere with any of Le Creuset's rights in or to Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress, including Le Creuset's or its affiliates' ownership or exercise thereof;

(b) challenge any right, title or interest of Le Creuset in or to Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress;

(c) make any claim or take any action adverse to Le Creuset's ownership of Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress;

(d) register or apply for registrations, anywhere in the world, for Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress or any other Trademark that is similar to Le Creuset Marks or Trade Dress or that incorporates Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress in whole or in confusingly similar part;

(e) use any name, logo or mark, anywhere, that is confusingly similar to Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress;

(f) engage in any action that tends to disparage, dilute the value of, or reflect negatively on the Le Creuset Branded Products or any Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress;

(g) misappropriate any of the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress for use as a domain name without prior written consent from Le Creuset;

(h) alter, obscure or remove any of Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress or trademark or copyright notices or any other proprietary rights notices placed on the Le Creuset Branded Products or the marketing or other materials that Le Creuset may provide;

(i) without Le Creuset's prior written consent in Le Creuset's sole discretion (which consent shall be, if given, deemed to be a grant of a license included in the Limited License above) include in any internet domain names, meta tags, web addresses, web pages, website or URLs any Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress, or any part thereof, including "Le Creuset" or any variation thereof; or

(j) acquire any Le Creuset Branded Products other than in Authorized Purchases.

- By placing an order for Le Creuset Branded Products, Customer agrees that it will be associated with the Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress and, accordingly, it agrees that the restrictions contained in the immediately preceding bullet point of this section "Use of Le Creuset Marks and Trade Dress; Use of Names, Logos, and Other Items; Restrictions and Distribution" shall apply to all Le Creuset Branded Products acquired by Customer at any time during the period of time from the last order under these Terms and Conditions until thereafter and until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, provided that the foregoing shall not be deemed to authorize any activity that would violate any intellectual property rights of Le Creuset or its affiliates, whether before or after the expiration of such statute of limitations.
- Customer agrees that the arrangements contemplated by these Terms and Conditions and the Supplemental Terms do not create a franchise or business opportunity. Without limiting the foregoing, Customer acknowledges that it has not been provided with manuals or other information concerning the management or operations of its business and Le Creuset does not offer and is not obligated to provide any assistance with respect to Customer's business operations, such as, but not limited to sales, repair, or business training programs, site location assistance, management, marketing, or personnel advice, promotional support requiring Customer's participation or financial contribution, or operating advice such as by furnishing a detailed operating manual or mandating personnel or accounting policies or practices. If, for any reason, the arrangements described above or any term in such arrangements are deemed by any governmental authority or in any governmental order to create a franchise or business opportunity relationship, then Le Creuset may immediately terminate all outstanding orders, the arrangements described above shall be of no further effect (other than as to payments required as to shipments delivered), and no further orders may be placed by Customer under these Terms and Conditions.
