VISION

If you bring your own thought through the hall, you can use optical form to produce wonderful psychological effects - making your living room less by itself from the outside world
and make your room look wider.

Patter NO: VIS1001

If your living room goes straight through the roof, you can use vertical lines to produce a wonderful psychological effect - making your living room deep. By adding lines, the outside world will make your room look wider.
