

PHARMACOLOGY 1

EclipseCrossword.com

WORD BANK

ACETAMINOPHEN
CURARE
HYDROCODONE
MIOSIS
PILOCARPINE
THIOPENTAL

ATROPINE
DOSE
INSOMNIA
MORPHINE
RESPIRATION

CLONIDINE
FIVE
INTRATHECAL
NALOXONE
SALBUTAMOL

COLOR
HEMATOMA
LIDOCAINE
NURSE
SOLUBILITY

PHARMACOLOGY 1

Across

---

1. Antidote for cholinergic crisis.
3. How a drug is metabolized depends on its molecular size, shape, ionization and this.
5. Whose responsibility is it to check any vague or unclear medication orders prior to administration?
6. The number of rights.
10. Zolpidem can be used to treat this condition.
12. Opioids provide pain relief and can depress this.
13. One of the rights.
14. Non depolarizing neuromuscular junction blocker causing muscle paralysis.
15. An example of a Schedule II substance.
17. Local anesthetic that is absorbed through the skin and can cause tinnitus.
18. Before the administration of a dose of morphine via epidural catheter, the nurse should ensure that this drug is readily available.
19. This drug can be used to treat glaucoma.

Down

---

2. Example of a barbiturate.
3. Used as an oral inhalant to relax bronchial smooth muscles.
4. Acetylcysteine has a terrible taste of rotten eggs and is the antidote for this.
7. These injections bypass the blood brain barrier and reach the CNS.
8. Subcutaneous injections should be done using 25 gauge needles of 5/8" length to avoid the formation of this.
9. The _____ of any medication should be checked prior to being added to a bag of IV fluids.
11. An example of a Schedule III substance.
14. This is an example of an alpha selective agonist and is used to treat anxiety and hypertension.
16. A symptom of anticholinesterase toxicity.