Electives may be chosen from any ETA courses (except those required at another level) among the three study methods: classroom series, audio series, and video seminar series. Course descriptions are available upon request and included in the ETA Catalog and Equipped to Serve brochure. Credits are valid for 10 years.

A Church-Designed Course (one of unique history, mission, emphasis and/or doctrine of your local church or denomination) may be used as an elective at any level. To qualify for ETA/CEU credit, the course must:

- a. Provide for a minimal 10 instructional hours
- b. Be taught by an ETA approved instructor
- c. Be compatible in student demand with other ETA courses
- d. The course syllabus, or outline, must be PRE-APPROVED by ETA.
