

PRIVACY POLICY

The Forever Young Foundation values the privacy of our donors and clients. It is our policy to collect and store only personal information that is knowingly provided to us. We do not trade, share, or sell personal information.

This Privacy Policy covers our practices regarding the collection of information from all sources, whether it be from this website or any other information gathered either electronically or offline. This includes any personal information from donors, prospective donors, or clients that can personally identify you and/or your organization including: Email Addresses, Mailing Addresses, and Phone Numbers.

This Privacy Policy covers our practices regarding the collection of information from all sources, whether it be from this website or any other information gathered either electronically or offline. This includes any personal information from donors, prospective donors, or clients that can provide personal identification to said donor or their organization including: Email Addresses, Mailing Addresses, and Phone Numbers.

Personal/Organizational Information Collected

The Forever Young Foundation collects and stores contact information from individuals and organizations as it is knowingly provided to us, including email addresses, physical addresses, and phone numbers. The Forever Young Foundation does not distribute, trade, share, or sell personal information or email addresses to third parties. We use this information to contact individuals via email, phone, and mail with additional resources. You may choose at any time not to provide personally identifiable information, although this may restrict our ability to provide requested services or information.

The following are examples of personally identifiable information that you may volunteer to provide and examples of how we use such information.

- Email Addresses – Forever Young Foundation collects email addresses from those that have requested more information or have donated funds for our charitable mission. Forever Young Foundation may use your email address to send you emails from Forever Young Foundation, including calendar events and newsletters. All unsolicited correspondence will include a direct link to REMOVE your email address from our database.
- Mailing Addresses – Forever Young Foundation collects mailing addresses of those that request information about our programs or have donated funds for our charitable mission. Forever Young Foundation may send via mail brochures or other informational items. To opt out of any mailings from Forever Young Foundation, please contact - Cookies – Many websites, including this one, use cookies, pieces of numeric data stored on your computer so that we can identify when you return to our website. Forever Young Foundation can only “read” cookies that are placed on your computer from our own website. Usage of cookies is not linked to any personally identifiable information. You can select to disable cookies by changing your browser settings.

- Forever Young Foundation does not store or file any personal account information. We will not disclose any personal information other than the donor name for our annual report listing. Any person requesting anonymity is listed as anonymous. We will not disclose any personal information about a donor or prospective donor to anyone outside Forever Young Foundation or any of its affiliated entities without the knowledge or consent of that donor or prospective donor except as follows:
  - To an auditor in connection with an audit of Forever Young Foundation;
  - To a lawyer who is representing Forever Young Foundation in a matter to which the personal information relates;
  - To comply with a subpoena, warrant, or requirement under an order or rule of court;
  - To a government institution that has made a request for the information, identifying its authority to do so, in connection with the administration of any law of the United States or Utah; or
  - In any other circumstance where disclosure is specifically permitted under any applicable personal information protection legislation.
