

DAVID DRAIN

RESUMÉ/CV

Born and raised in the south of Scotland, David Drain's studio and home are in a village on the edge of the Black Forest in the South of Germany, close to the Swiss art city of Basel.

Despite his early interest in art, he studied Engineering at University in Glasgow, living and working across the globe including Switzerland, France, the Middle East, Ukraine, and the UK. After a successful career he returned to his passion for art.

David's paintings are exclusively abstract. He began working full-time as a visual artist in 2016.
