ARTWORK Dancing in the Springtime

ARTWORK STORY

Together, a Christmas Bell Baby and a Flannel Flower Baby celebrate the joy of spring, frolicking among blossoms in a lively dance that reflects the rejuvenation of the Australian bush.

The Christmas Bell Baby, with its festive charm, brings a spark of energy and laughter. Beside it, the Flannel Flower Baby exudes calm elegance, swaying delicately in the breeze.

May Gibbs' artistry is brought to life in this design, blending her love of native flora with the enchanting world of her Bush Babies. This piece invites a sense of playful serenity into any space, evoking fond memories of nature's beauty and childhood imagination.

May Gibbs, one of Australia's most cherished illustrators and authors, is celebrated for her enchanting depictions of the Australian bush. Her deep love for native flora and fauna inspired timeless works like Gumnut Babies and Snugglepot and Cuddlepie. Through whimsical storytelling and intricate botanical artistry, Gibbs captures the spirit of Australia's unique landscape, transforming it into magical worlds where bush babies and other adorable characters come alive. Her legacy continues to inspire generations, blending heritage with creativity. Each design in this collection honours her vision, bringing the beauty and charm of the Australian bush into contemporary interiors.
