

WHAT ARE PEOPLE SAYING ABOUT THEM?

Brilliant!

Barely managed to get it out of the packet and it got swiped from my hands by my one year old female. She then spent a good ten minutes rolling, kicking it and batting it around. Male cat not so interested but he isn't keen on catnip either. The valerian smell isn't great but bearable when you see the reaction :) best £2.50 spent!

Smelly and Lovely

Both my 12-yr old M + F cats love playing with this large mouse toy. It has opened up the inner kitten in them.

crazy daisy loves valerian

my cat Daisy has always loved catnip and valerian so we bought her this mouse. As soon as we took it out she was rolling around on the floor with it in her paws rubbing her face and generally getting high, we now have one happy spaced out puddytat!

fragrant delight for the kitty

My cat is pretty indifferent to catnip but she loves valerian, and this mouse makes her simply trip out. She hugs it, nuzzles it, nibbles it, rubs her face in it, rolling around with it in drooling ecstasy. I let her play with it for a few minutes and then put it back in the ziplock bag (along with another of her toys to infuse!). The mouse does smell very strongly of valerian, but it's to be expected.

Fantastic!

Due to reviews I read about this smelling bad, I only ordered one. After receiving my order, my three cats went mad for the Aumüller Cat Toy Mouse Valeri.. And the smell wasn't bad at all. I am ordering more so they all have one each and don't end up fighting over who plays with it first! Wonderful product, highly recommended.

17 years old

my older cat returned to kittenhood with this smelly toy. It has a beanbag feel, he tugs and chews and his pupils dilate, then he runs around the room ,worth every penny but wow does it smell!!!
