THE STORY & DESIGN

Hand illustrated by an artist out of Portugal you will not find anything similar on the market. The story behind the can is simple. The illustration is complex. It was designed to showcase the narrative between the ethereal Corpse Reviver on the top half of the can with those in need of revival underground. She offers revival by harnessing the power of electrolytes and botanicals . With every sip of this specially crafted hydration blend, experience the revitalizing journey that brings the drinker back to life. This isn't just a can; it's a masterpiece that redefines the art of beverage packaging.
