Colorful Nasturtiums

Colorful, edible, butterfly-like nasturtium blossoms have delighted gardeners and cooks alike for centuries. At different times in history, they have been regarded as a vegetable, herb, flower, and even a fruit... Read More

Make Nasturtium Vinegar

Fill any size large glass container half full with rinsed and dried nasturtium flowers. Then fill the jar with warmed white vinegar or (unseasoned) rice vinegar. Top with plastic wrap and a lid and let steep for about 2 weeks to transfer flavor and color. Strain the fragrant, jewel-toned nasturtium vinegar through cheesecloth and put into pretty bottles to use in making delicious vinaigrettes.
