Indy Fontaine conquers a new audience with release of “Libérame”.

With her unique sound and feel, Indy channels the passions felt in her own previous experiences with “Libérame”, a story about a seemingly impossible love. Facing the difficult circumstances of a long-distance relationship, the singer begs her lover to free her from the sadness of being apart. This soft rock, pop/rock song features lyrics in Spanish, electric and acoustic guitars and is the first song in Indy’s catalogue that does not feature a piano. The piece was written, performed and produced by Indy in her studio, Fontaine Records with co-producer Mike Fahey.

The music video which was simultaneously released on YouTube was produced by Bis Music with Executive Producer José Manuel García Suárez and directed by Michel Hernández.

Fontaine is a singer-songwriter, producer and multi-instrumentalist who in recent years moved from Havana, Cuba to the Miami area. This is the 5th of 11 songs to be released in the first half of 2024. It is available now for streaming or download on all platforms.
