BEHIND THE BRAND

BLAQ is an Australian skincare brand designed to take prime position on your bathroom vanity. The products are minimal, the packaging is desirable and the results are downright remarkable. Built on the basis of their core ingredient, Activated Charcoal, their products are formulated to solve your first world skin problems and erase the evidence of late nights, city-living and one too many wines (if there is such a thing), by detoxifying and nurturing your skin back to a healthy state.

	MASK	On a pursuit to perfect, poreless skin sans blackheads? Minimise your mirror time with this activated charcoal mask designed to target toxins and draw out impurities, instantly.	$29
	HYDROGEL EYE MASK	Late nights, too many cheeky wines and let's not forget those carb-on-carb delights, can have our peepers looking, well, not so fresh. Leave the evidence of last night behind, and pop on this activated charcoal eye mask to de-puff, detox and get back to your shiny, gorgeous self.	$29
	TEETH WHITENING PEN	This teeth whitening pen uses activated charcoal and coconut oil – two natural whitening wonders that swiftly lifts stains and impurities without causing tooth erosion or damaging enamel. This high achiever also kills off bad breath bacteria – Fa-resh!	$20
	DUAL SIDED WIPES	Cleanse and exfoliate duo wipes are a match made in skincare heaven. Enriched with activated charcoal, the cleansing side gently removes surface level makeup and dirt while the exfoliating side complements with a deeper clean – working like a magnet to draw out impurities and dead skin cells.	$13
