AUTUMN FASHION 2022

Introducing Autumn 2022 and welcome to "I never promised you ..." in this case a herb garden, not roses! With these days of lockdowns we have all spent a lot of time in our gardens or enjoying our indoor plants.

We were so lucky to do this shoot at Bootmakers Cottage Birregurra in country Victoria, the most beautiful Airbnb that you must try to visit and enjoy. That is part of the positives ahead that we can look forward to exploring our own beautiful states and country.

There has been a massive input to planning herb and veggie garden patches, whether you have land, pots or a window-sill, anyone who gardens knows how good it is for the mind, the body, the soul & general wellbeing. The benefits in tending your own garden and then eating from it are hugely rewarding.

This lead me to design this Autumn range of herb garden & flowers in a combination of embroidered & print cottons in the softest corduroys and poplins. Herbs I used are a mix of Rosemary, Thyme, Calendula, Basil, Parsley, etc. With floral patch block print cottons in assorted mixed together and some smocking details in shirts. It is a trans-seasonal range that is a perfect weight for our Feb to April months, that can also be worn year round.

I hope this inspires you to start some planting of your own while you frolic in your gardens, parks, forests or beaches in Mandalay.

With Love, Emma x

Model is 5'9 and wearing sample size medium when she would normally wear a size small.
