

FISHY BUSINESS

The Barbie Girls, an online premium food supplier that brings in fully traceable meat and seafood, now offers sashimi-grade Mount Cook Alpine King Salmon. Mount Cook Alpine Salmon farms salmon from the Mackenzie Basin in the South Island of New Zealand, and it takes only 48 hours for the fish to be shipped to Singapore. Swimming against the flow of highly-oxygenated, glacial waters means the fish are healthier and contain less saturated fat than ocean-reared salmon.

A side of salmon (approximately 900gm) is available at www.thebarbiegirls.com for $61.90 (fresh) and $57.90 (frozen).
