Book 2: Ending Consonants

To the teacher: Each unit presents two to four ending consonant sounds with usually eight common examples for auditory, visual, and cognitive development. The consonants are contrasted for recall and production, then heard in simple sentences. A conversation, song, scene with environmental print, or chant with high frequency words is included in each unit for memorization and sight reading. Answer Pages, Teacher's Guide and Two audio CDs for this book are available.
