

JOB ROLE: Warehouse/pick and packer

Love food? Love cake?

We are an exciting scaling London based premium food brand focused on gifting and occasions. We are looking for a seasoned operator to join our fast-paced D2C and retail business.

The Pick and Packer role is a key activity in our manufacturing cycle. Finished food products will come to the Pre-packing and Packing rooms and require to be packed and assembled in line with a set of established guidelines set by Cutter and Squidge. Our roles do generally involve a lot of walking and climbing of steps in a shift with the packing roles requiring good dexterity.

Full & part time shifts are available across all days of the week, specifically Thursdays and Fridays.

Our team will provide you with two weeks full training including mandatory food health and safety training, and a further two weeks additional support in order to be a fully operational member of the dispatch and logistics team.

Responsibilities will include:

- Checking products match orders
- Ensuring products are packed in a quick and tidy manner, and in accordance with company guidelines
- Separating orders dependent on carrier
- Checking the quality of the product
- Doing weekly stock takes
- There may be the need to move stock, in some cases in and out of freezers
- The possible opportunity to learn to drive a forklift

A typical day will include picking items from product storage areas, organising your work space, checking orders and packing customer orders to exacting standards and company quantities.

The ideal candidate will:

- Have a good work ethic
- Be punctual at all times
- Have a diligent and organised approach to work
- Be able to work fast and effectively

- Show attention to detail
- Have good communication skills and able to work with all levels of management and team members. The role required fluent English to enable understanding of the packing instructions and guidelines
- Be able to manage work load and meet expected deadlines.
- Be attentive and follow orders precisely
- Some warehouse or packing experience is preferable

Given the nature of the role requirements, good mobility and dexterity is required.
