

The Perfect Provenance's Café 47 Hosts Exceptional Monthly Dinner Tasting

Andrew Dominick July 30, 2019

Exclusivity when dining out has a way of making us feel special. The smaller, the better. It's like being part of a special club. It's cool knowing that at that very moment, in a space half the size of a normal living room, that you and 20 people are the only ones that get to take part in an intimate dinner.

Most often the problem is that "exclusive" equates to "EXPENSIVE."

That brings us to Greenwich! Wait, before you think this is going to be some $150 per person affair, you're so very wrong.
