INTO GENOCIDE:
MEMOIRS OF AN ARMENIAN SOLDIER
IN THE OTTOMAN TURKISH ARMY
The Riveting Story of Yervant Alexanian

SUNDAY, MARCH 24 2019
2:30 P.M.

at the Museum of Tolerance
9786 W. Pico Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90035

Adrienne G. Alexanian, editor

With an introduction by Sergio La Porta and a foreword by Israel W. Charny

After Yervant Alexanian passed away his daughter Adrienne discovered a trove of her father's hidden documents detailing the horrors he endured during the Armenian Genocide.

Her father had witnessed the massacre and dislocation of his family and people in Ottoman Turkey during World War I as a conscripted soldier in the Turkish Army.

He fled to America in 1920 and never told his family about his experience.

Adrienne spent years preparing her father's manuscript for publication.
No comparable accounts exist in the literature on the Armenian Genocide.

A book sale and signing will follow the program.

This commemorative program is offered free of charge. Advance RSVP is required.
