

“Impossible Harms”:

A Conversation with Prof. Henry Theriault, President, International Association of Genocide Scholars

“Genocide studies has been at the forefront of recent human rights advances. Demagogues attack the sensibilities [it] engenders. Our work is a crucial challenge to their propaganda.”

Join a conversation with Henry Theriault, recently elected as President of the International Association of Genocide Scholars (IAGS), on human rights violations around the world, the state of genocide studies today, genocide prevention, reparations, denial, and more.

Dr. Henry Theriault is the President of the International Association of Genocide Scholars and Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, Worcester State University.
