

So-called "standard" clothing sizes are in fact not standard at all, so we have developed our own size chart based on body measurements. Please compare your body measurements to our size chart to determine the best size for you. For more details, measurements for each garment can be found on the product page.

For maximum accuracy, all measurements should be taken by somebody else with a flexible tape measure while you stand straight, in your normal underwear and thin clothing such as leggings. When measuring, the tape should be close fitting but comfortable. Measure in centimetres to the nearest 0.25cm and always double check!
