WE ADORE SOME WRIST CANDY AND AMANDA WAKELEY'S ROSE-GOLD, ART DECO-STYLE BANGLE IS WORTH EVERY PENNY. Looking for a honeymoon where everything is Instagram-perfect? Check out Sandals' over-the-water private villas, at its new all-inclusive Royal Caribbean Resort & Private Island in Jamaica. Each villa has it all: a see-through glass floor so you can gaze at the multi-coloured fish even when you're in bed, an infinity pool to relax in as you drink essential rum daiquiris and a hammock-fortwo on your terrace for gazing at the stars in comfort. Tickety tick. Yes, this is where we long to be...

Chloë Chloë One way to guarantee you'll remember one way to guarantee you'll remember your honeymoon forever is picking a scent especially for it, like Chloé's new Fleur de Parfum. It's got the same classic base of rose as the original, but it's been updated with cherry blossom, verbena, almond milk and raspberry. This is summer in a bottle.

There's a reason everyone talks about Heidi Klein swimwear. Not only is it spot-on for poolside posing, but it fits like a dream and looks as good when you're diving into the sea as it does on your sunlounger. Right now, we're loving her classic Nantucket one-piece part of the new nautical staple range - which is oh-so-stylish and incredibly flattering.
