Guerline works at Three Cords. She lost her right arm in the earthquake. For the next five years, she would stitch cloth items using her one arm to stabilize the cloth and her teeth to pull each stitch through. In 2015, Three Cords was able to secure a prosthetic arm for her. She has continued to sew beautiful items with her new, prosthetic arm.

Every purchase provides FMSC meals and builds sustainable communities.