

ARTISAN HIGHLIGHT | JONAS

Jonas loves making metal art because it provides for his family. As a child, he learned the craft from his uncle. Now he's teaching his older children so they can someday work with him. He says he wants to encourage people to keep buying his art because this work provides for his family.

HANDMADE IN HAITI

Every purchase provides FMSC meals and builds sustainable communities.