

ARTISAN HIGHLIGHT | KENIA

Kenia's life changed once she started handcrafting cards for Rosie's Boutique. She enjoys the work and is now able to take care of her daughter, Afaina. As a result of Kenya's stable income, Afaina is now going to school. "This work has helped me so much. Before working here, I was living in a very difficult way," she said. "Connecting with Rosie's Boutique has changed my life."
