

ARTISAN HIGHLIGHT | TERESA

Teresa is 17 years old and one of 10 children in her family. In 2009, her mother was diagnosed with breast cancer. In order to cover her medical needs, Teresa's family had to sell their land and home. They began making bracelets and using the income to pay for food and medicine. Before they were separated by their work. Today, the family makes bracelets as their main source of income and the children are able to stay in school.

HANDMADE IN THE PHILIPPINES

