

Treatment of Focal Mucositis/Mucinosi Using StellaLife VEGA Oral Gel

Description

A 73 y/o female with previous history of SCCA (Dx and Tx in 2009) presents for evaluation of L retromolar lesion. Incisional biopsy is performed and the Dx of Focal Mucinosi is established. Fig.1 and Fig. 2 are pre-Tx pictures.

Method

Patient is placed on VEGA Oral Gel three times per day application and scheduled to be re-evaluated in 1 month. On 1 month follow up appointment complete resolution of the lesion found.

Conclusion

During 1 month treatment, VEGA Oral Gel completely resolved a lesion associate with Mucositi /Mucinosi in the retromolar pad area. Fig. 3 is a 1 month follow-up after VEGA Oral Gel treatment.

Fig. 1

Fig. 2

Fig. 3

