HRP Hookup Program Requirements

- To take good care of all products supplied to you and keeping them in professional detailed appearance.
- To give HRP positive and negative feedback on the products you are using. Your insights will directly influence future product developments and improvements.
- To present yourself in a courteous and respectable manner during events. Remember that you are a representative of HRP and its respective brands.
- To help out and be proactive in your RC community. Offer technical and set-up assistance regardless of brand. Turn Marshal when volunteers are needed. Help out with track or airfield maintenance. Helping consumers and your local RC community regardless of brand usage.
- Provide proactive feedback on HRP products to consumers on RC related sites.
- All HRP Hookup Program members must allow the use of product reviews, results, imaging and/or material given in reports for marketing or other promotional campaigns by HRP.
- All purchases are final. Any product that is defective will be valid for a product credit only.

Termination of HRP Hookup Program Membership

- All products acquired through the HRP Hookup Program are for personal use only. Quantities in this program are limited by standard expectations for personal use. If we suspect that you have ordered anything for anyone other than yourself, your account will immediately be terminated. Abuse of the HRP Hookup Program is a serious issue and will not be tolerated. Selling of products acquired through the HRP Hookup Program is not permitted and will result in immediate termination.
- Any evidence of disorderly conduct, substance abuse, foul language and/or physical violence.
- Any public criticism of HRP products. As noted before, your input is important, please make sure your criticism is directed to the HRP team only in a non-public forum only. Think before you type!
- Destructive behavior or bad sportsmanship.
- Not cleaning up after an event regardless - practice days are included. Leave your area the way it was when you arrived.
- Pricing and other information I receive from the HRP Hookup Program is strictly private and confidential and is not, therefore, to be discussed with anyone who is not an HRP Hookup Program member. Any such breach of this will be considered as grounds for the immediate termination.

I personally guarantee and agree to the terms and conditions as stated above.
