

Olá from Brazil!

I've travelled all the way to Rio to find out how they do things at Christmas time!

They have such a fun tradition of secret Santa!
People make up a new name and give presents to a special person during advent, using their fake name. They only reveal their real identity on Christmas Day.
I might do this for my Lingotot friend but shhhh it's a secret!

Here's a special gift tag for you to decorate.
Maybe you could make up a fun new name too!
Love Elf xx
