

Hei from Finland!

I'm in the beautiful Helsinki to meet with another lovely Lingotot pal.

We've found out that the Finnish like to take great care of their animals at Christmas, placing foodie treats out for the birds and wild animals, like nuts and suet. I think that we will be adopting this tradition back home, what a lovely idea!

It's so cold here in Finland, so you have a nice Christmas jumper to design!

Love Elf xx
