

Bonjour from France!

I'm sitting at the top of the Eiffel Tower with another Lingotot and finding out all about Christmas in France.

They have the yummiest tradition yet! On the 6th January, the French celebrate the feast of the Epiphany (the day when the 3 kings finally made it to visit baby Jesus). They serve King Cake (Galette des Rois), which contains a special hidden treasure. If you have the treasure in your slice of cake, you become king or queen of your house that day!

Here's a special crown for you to decorate, using any craft materials!

Love Elf xx
