

Ciao from Italy!

I've flown to Rome with my Lingotot friend to find out about Italian Christmas!

It looks like we'll have to wait a while for our presents though! In Italy, children usually get their presents on the feast of the Epiphany (when the 3 kings came to visit baby Jesus) on Jan 6th!

While we wait, here is a lovely pile of presents for you to colour, using numbers!
Love Elf xx
