

TOP WINES OF THE YEAR!

After a whole year of sipping and savoring some truly delicious wines, we are thrilled to unveil our highly anticipated Top Wines of the Year! This list showcases 15 of the best and most exciting wines we've discovered this past year. Our selection is based on the stuff that really matters: how good they taste, the bang you get for your buck, and, of course, a touch of personal bias. We're not just suggesting these wines; we'd happily pour a glass for our family, friends, and ourselves any day. Cheers!

2021 Altosur Malbec

Reg: $17

Club: $12.99

Made with 100% estate grown fruit from 30+ year old vines, this entry-level Malbec immediately blew us away in terms of its complexity and concentration. This is some serious juice that could easily go for $20+ a bottle. With its alluring dark fruit and floral aromas, intense flavors, soft tannins, and long finish, this is a complete wine through and through.

2018 Clos Floridene Graves Blanc

Reg: $30

Club: $21.99

An exceptional Bordeaux Blanc from Denis Dubourdieu, the man who transformed white Bordeaux into the serious and profound wine category it is today. Intensely aromatic with powerful fresh flavors and good structure, this is Graves Blanc at its best.

WINE ADVOCATE

2020 Harebrained Napa Cabernet

Reg: $40

Club: $28.99

Drinking like a wine twice its price, this is some killer juice that encapsulates what Napa Cabernet is all about. Full, dense, and beautifully textured with upfront notes of dark cherry accompanied by leather, cocoa, pepper, and earth accents. Bold yet supple with plenty of tannins that never cross the line of being overbearing.

2020 Poppy Cabernet

Reg: $16
Club: $13.99

It's time to swap out that bottle of Josh Cabernet for something new. Well balanced with soft tannins this Paso Robles Cab offers dark fruit flavors supported by accents of licorice, violet, and cigar box.

2022 Marco Porello Roero Arneis

Reg: $20
Club: $16.99

The comeback kid of Piedmont! Once on the verge of extinction, Arneis is now a cult favorite. Complex yet delicate, this charming Italian white is bone dry with notes of white floral, wild fennel, stone fruit, and pear.

2020 J. de Villebois Menetou Salon

Reg: $29
Club: $24.99

Menetou-Salon, one of central Loire's best kept secrets. Offering a mix of zesty character and structured minerality, this stands up to any Sancerre off the rack. What more can we say. This is absolutely fantastic!

2016 McCall Pinot Noir

Reg: $30
Club: $23.99

This local favorite is a true testament to what Long Island producers can do. Strikes a nice balance between strawberry and spice aromas with dark cherry and earthy flavors. Subtle notes of vanilla emerge on the finish.

2016 Bodegas Muriel Rioja Reserva

$17.99

Made from 40+ year old vines and aged 2 years in oak barrels with an additional two years in bottle before release, this Rioja Reserva is dark and rich with velvety texture and a long finish. An exceptional value for the money. Full, fleshy, and ready to be enjoyed now.

2022 Gulp Hablo Orange Wine

Reg: $20
Club: $16.99

This year we ventured into the world of orange wine and instantly fell in love with this Spanish one. Juicy and zippy with upfront notes of white flower and tangerine. Savory orange peel on the zingy finish.

2021 Jean-Paul Drun Terres Dorees Morgon

Reg: $25
Club: $19.99

A delicate, fruity, and pleasurable Morgon that exemplifies how far $20 can get you in Beaujolais. Knockout value with good complexity, concentration, and juicy fruit flavors. Organically farmed.
