WELCOME TO FIBREX NURSERIES LTD

We are delighted to present our 2023 mail order catalogue.

Dear Friends,

After more than 60 years, this will be our last catalogue as we, that is Ursula and Angela, will be retiring in September of 2023.

The nursery will close then, so this is your last opportunity to buy your Pelargoniums during what will be as normal as we can make it, trading season. The nursery will be open for business as usual and we look forward to seeing you here.

The Begonias, ferns and Hedera will continue to be listed and available on the website www.fibrex.co.uk and at the nursery.

Despite the increases in production costs we have managed to keep our plants prices the same so that in this final year our wonderful customers, old and new, can benefit from the most extensive range of Pelargoniums grown commercially, in the World.

We have two new introductions for you this year. Both very special. The first is a newbie raised here, from Lord Bute. After much discussion we have called it 'Imperial Bute'.

A very fine, robust Regal. And a fabulous new Stellar from Steve Pollard which has been named 'Tom Kirkland'.

There will as usual, be more varieties available on the website than we can ever list here in the catalogue and for those that can make it, the range on the nursery will be as extensive as usual so please do come and see us before the gates close. For those that can't make it, our mail order service will continue as usual. However, please note that whilst we will still offer the Royal Mail option for upto 4 plants, this no longer carries a guarantee and will not be replaced if it gets lost en route. Please see inside of back cover for shipping costs, and keep in mind that the DPD service is guaranteed and tracked from our nursery to your door.

P.S. If anyone would like to buy a Pelargonium Nursery, please do get in touch!

We wish you happy, healthy and successful gardening for 2023.

Pelargonium orders will be dispatched from March.*

We reserve the right to withhold dispatch of orders in times of adverse weather conditions.

MAIL ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

It is advisable when ordering to select one or two alternative varieties, as it is inevitable that on some occasions we will be temporarily out of stock of some items, or we will substitute the nearest plant unless requested not to. On receipt, if substitute of our choice is unacceptable, you are entitled to return it within 7 days and we will reimburse the cost of the plant and postage. The fact that we accept an order does not guarantee that every plant will be available at the time of execution; occasionally plants may die or be damaged by adverse conditions. We would, of course, then refund any payments already made.

DISPATCH: You are entitled to cancel your order from the day of ordering until the week before dispatch. However, because of the nature of the goods, once we have dispatched your plants, under section 13, paragraph 1c of the Consumer Protection (Distance Selling) regulation 2000, goods that are made to the consumer specification or are liable to deteriorate or expire rapidly means your statutory 7 working days cooling off period is void. Before dispatch, plants are examined and packed with great care to ensure that they arrive in perfect condition. If your plants are not in good condition upon receipt because of damage or delay, notify us immediately by telephone, email or letter, giving date of arrival and condition of the plants. This matter will then be dealt with as swiftly as possible. Once the plants have been delivered safely the ownership has passed from us to the customer. We cannot be responsible for the health of plants when they are grown in conditions not under our control, although we are quite prepared to give advice on growing problems.

PAYMENT: By credit card, cheque or postal order. Credit card payment will be taken from your account at the point of dispatch. Cheques (made payable to FibreX Nurseries Ltd.) and postal orders will be banked on receipt of order. However, we may not be able to dispatch within the statutory 30 days due to planting/growing conditions or circumstances over which we have no control, so if payment is made by cheque or postal order you are accepting that we will not return your moneys after 30 days. If this is not acceptable then we advise you to pay by credit card. For our full terms and conditions please visit our website www.fibreX.co.uk PELARGONIUM ORDERS: All plants are pot grown and dispatched by either letter post for small orders or overnight courier with tracking for orders of 6 plants and over, because speed is essential once the Pelargoniums are packed. Plants sent out for mail orders are grown in bio-degradeable pots. On receipt of plants, pot on into larger pots leaving the bio-degradeable pot on the plant - the roots will grow through this and eventually the pot will disintegrate. John Innes No 2, or a good quality fresh multi-purpose compost can be used. They can also be planted straight out into the garden or into tubs still with the bio-degradeable pot on (remembering that they will not withstand frost). If you are growing plants in pots water sparingly, then after four weeks, water with a high potash feed (tomato feed) once every 7 days during the late Spring and Summer.
