

VIOLET FISH | Winter 2015

While Australia is getting warmer and everyone is starting to enjoy the vibrant summer fashions, we have been busy finalising our Winter 2015 range. As always, we try to use as many natural fibres as possible- so look out for our lovely linens, classic cottons, rich rayons, smooth silks and the softest suede lambskin.

You'll find many of our signature understated styles this season. A new staple piece is the Isa long sleeved T. We've spent a long time perfecting the fit and feel of our basics and this is no exception. In the softest rayon knit, the Isa T is available in an array of luxurious, muted colours, a must for winter layering.

We've also got some highlight pieces sprinkled throughout the range to delight and surprise. We have designed our own exclusive in-house baroque print, which compliments the colours of the season. For a bold and beautiful look, we love doubling up on our print - perhaps the Leura tunic and Adelaide Pant. If printed isn't you, keep it simple with our fine Tatachilla shirt. Whatever you decide, you can be sure that the garments will fit beautifully and flatter the figure.

At Violet Fish we hope you will love our new range as much as we do. Our personal favourites? The cotton lace Tully jacket and the Alice double frill skirt. We can't wait for the weather to change so we can wear them!!
