INTRODUCTION

Spike's K9 Fund was founded by James "Jimmy" Hatch, a retired Special Warfare Operator. As a K9 handler on several deployments, James' life, as well as the lives of his teammates, were regularly saved by the work of K9s. His first and most memorable K9 was named Spike. On James' final deployment, the night he was critically wounded, a K9 named Remco saved James' life while sacrificing his own.

From that evening on, James oriented his life around the training, care, and preservation of working dogs. To date, Spike's K9 Fund has helped over 2,600 dogs across all 50 states, providing life-saving equipment, care, and training to K9 teams across the country.

These dogs are not volunteers, and that is why Spike's K9 Fund is here to provide for the K9s who valiantly serve our country.
